

1998

First Communications was founded and began operating as a telecom wholesale provider for local residential and SMB's in the midwest.

2004

FirstComm purchases CoreComm, allowing the company to own and operate on their own technology while simplifying business operations and enhancing customer service.

2008

To evolve network and communication capabilities, FC Purchases Globalcom - expanding network resources and boosting national presence in new markets.

2016

FirstComm acquires Cimco expanding the network and bandwidth customer base into new territories across the United States.

2016

FirstComm explores UCaaS with Broadsoft and begins the journey into cloud communications alongside network solutions.

2018

FirstComm purchases Meta (now Microsoft) cloud technology and begins expanding UC offerings for thousands of clients across the 50 united states.

2020

First Communications Rebrands as FirstComm with focus on delivering cloud based and hybrid solutions that empower business continuity

