A. General

Provides integrated voice/data communications capability for transmission and combination of circuit switched voice / data and packet switched data signals on an incoming and outgoing basis over a single ISDN line. This service requires two 64 Kbps “B” channels to transmit any combination of Circuit Switched Voice/Data or high speed Packet Switched Data and one “D” channel to carry network signaling and user originated Packet Switched data at speeds up to 9.6 Kbps (2B+D). It is available from specially equipped digital switching equipment located in the Company’s central offices (or in the offices of a Company affiliated supplier/carrier) and where facilities permit and where capacity is available within specified distances from the serving central office. A maximum of 8 devices may be connected directly to an ISDN line and only 2 of these devices are permitted to access the two “B” channels.

ISDN Services provided under Section 4.8.5 are available only on a “grandfathered” basis to Customers who were acquired by the Company from USN Communications, Inc. and who were subscribers to the service on April 2, 2001.

4.15.1 Message Telecommunications Service

Message Telecommunications Service (MTS) is a communications service which is available for use by customers who are not presubscribed to CoreComm long distance service, as described at Section 14.0 of this tariff, or who have not selected any carrier as their primary interexchange carrier. MTS enables a user of an exchange access line to place calls to any station on the public switched telecommunications network bearing an NPA-NXX designation associated with points outside the Customer's Local Calling Area, but within the boundaries of the LATA where the Customer (or the Customer's end user) is located. Customers may arrange for interLATA service from the interexchange carriers of their choice. Customers who choose the Company as their carrier for intraLATA calls and interLATA calls are provided such services pursuant to Section 14.0 of this tariff.

MTS Calls are billed in one (1) minute increments with an initial billing period of one (1) minute. The total number of minutes will be rounded at the end of the Billing Period to the nearest minute. Fractional cents will be rounded to the nearest cent.

The Company may make special promotional offerings of its service on a limited basis. This promotional offering may include waiving or reducing the applicable charges for the promoted service. The promotion may also be offered for a limited duration and limited to specific locations within the state. The waiver of any charge, other than a non-recurring charge, shall be limited to ninety (90) days on a per-customer basis.

4.17 INDIVIDUAL CASE BASIS ARRANGEMENTS

When the Company furnishes a facility or service for which a rate or charge is not specified in the Company's tariffs, charges will be determined on an Individual Case Basis (ICB). ICB rates will be offered to the customer in writing, on a nondiscriminatory basis and will be filed with the PUCO for approval.

4.18 RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMER REFERRAL CREDIT

Residential local exchange service customers will be entitled to a referral credit of $8.00 on their monthly bills for each new customer referred and subscribed to Company's residential local exchange service. Unused referral credits in any given month may be transferred to succeeding months.

C. Miscellaneous Monthly Recurring and Non-Recurring Charges *

1. Toll Free Service

Customers subscribing to the Company's toll-free inbound long distance services shall be assessed the following monthly recurring charge per toll-free number subscribed:

	Minimum	Maximum
Toll Free Service Monthly Recurring Charge
- per toll free number	$0.01	$20.00

2. Project Account Codes

Project Account Codes ("PAC") permit Customers to assign telephone usage to a particular coded project of the Customer's choosing. Where a Customer elects to use non-verified codes, any code using the proper number of digits (2, 3, or 4) allows completion of the call. Where a Customer elects to use verified codes, call completion occurs only after a specific 2, 3, or 4-digit code (selected by the Customer from an existing index) is keyed in. Where a Customer elects to use custom codes, call completion occurs only after a specific verified code (between 2 to 8 digits) established by the Customer is keyed in.

14.1.2.13 CoreComm Business Switched Long Distance

A. General

The Company offers MTS intraLATA, interLATA intrastate and interLATA interstate 1+ outbound long distance telecommunications service utilizing switched or dedicated access arrangements between Customer premises and the Company's facilities for call origination. Call termination is completed through a combination of Company facilities and LEC switched access arrangements. This plan is for business customers only. See Section 4.3.4 of this tariff for surcharges and tax rate information.

B. Timing of Calls

Usage charges are based on the actual usage of the Company network. Chargeable time begins when a connection is established between the Calling Station and the Called Station. Chargeable time ends when either party "hangs up" thereby releasing the network connection. Unless otherwise specified, for billing purposes, the minimum call duration is thirty (30) seconds. In addition, unless otherwise specified, usage is measured thereafter in six (6) second increments and rounded to the next higher six (6) second period. Fractional amounts are rounded up to the next highest whole cent. International call usage is measured in six (6) second increments and has a minimum per call duration of sixty (60) seconds.

Promotional Offerings

Beginning on November 3, 1997, Carrier will offer the following promotional program for select new customers:

From time to time, select new customers to CoreComm Calling Card Service may be entitled to a calling card with 15 free minutes included on it which the customer will have up to 90 days to use. Unused minutes cannot be transferred to succeeding months. This offer is good on direct dialed domestic long distance service only.

Beginning on January 30, 1998, Carrier will offer the following promotional program for Land Line Long Distance Service customers:

New Customers to CoreComm Service between January 30, 1998 and April 30, 1998 are entitled to up to $5.00 off long distance usage for each of the first 10 months of service. Because CoreComm has several billing cycles, a customer's first bill may include only a partial month's charges. As a result, for purposes of this promotion, the first month's credit may be prorated unless the billing cycle date is the date of activation. The second month will constitute a full thirty day period and so on. If the first month was prorated, the customer will receive the remainder of their first month's credit in month 11. Unused credits in any given month cannot be transferred to succeeding months. This offer is good on direct dialed domestic long distance service only.

20.3.4 CoreConnect PRI

CoreConnect PRI offers Customers the option of designing service packages to fit their specific communications needs. CoreConnect PRI services will be provided to the Customer by the Company via an ISDN access line. Certain monthly rates plus usage charges will apply as provided herein depending upon the term commitment made by the Customer and the services to which the Customer subscribes. The Company's central office trunk port will be connected to the Customer's location via a DS-1 (1.544 Mbps) facility. CoreConnect PRI's standard configuration will be 23 B channels (64 Kbps) for user information, plus 1 D channel (64 Kbps) for signaling and control functions which will remain idle when not in use. The Company will require a 23-B and 1-D channel configuration where 47 or more channels are controlled by a single primary D channel. CoreConnect PRI is available only where facilities permit to Business Customers who subscribe for a term of one, two, three, or five years.

PROMOTIONAL OFFERING

Refer a Friend Promotion

General

The Refer a Friend Promotion is available to Customers subscribing to the Company's services pursuant to Section 4.4.5.1 during the promotional period ("Eligible Customers"). The Company will issue a service credit to an Eligible Customer who refers a new Customer to subscribe to the Company's service pursuant to Section 4.4.5.1 during the promotional period (a "New Subscriber"). The service credit issued to the Eligible Customer will be equal in value to the Eligible Customer's monthly rate of service for the Eligible Customer's first line only. Subject to the limitations following, a credit will accrue to the Eligible Customer's account only after the completion of the New Subscriber's second billing cycle.

Promotional Period

The promotional period will be from July 17, 2001 to September 14, 2001.

Limitations

At the time of subscription, the New Subscriber must identify the Eligible Customer to the Company by name and telephone number. The Company will not permit retroactive identification of an Eligible Customer following such subscription.

The New Subscriber must maintain service with the Company for two consecutive billing cycles. If prior to the completion of the second such cycle, the New Subscriber cancels service or the Company discontinues the same for violation of this Tariff, the Eligible Customer will not be entitled to the accrual of any credit for that referral.

The following are not deemed to be New Subscribers: (a) existing Customers who add to or change services or (b) former Customers who cancel the Company's service during the promotional period and subsequently re-subscribe for services during the same period.

Where multiple credits accrue to an Eligible Customer's account during a single billing cycle, the Company will apply one such accrued credit to the account, and defer the remainder of the credits. Such deferred credits will be applied to the Eligible Customer's account at a rate of one credit per billing cycle in each successive month until such deferred credits are exhausted. Eligible Customers may not otherwise defer the application of credits to any subsequent month. Regardless of the foregoing, no Eligible Customer may receive a credit pursuant to this promotional offering for more than three consecutive billing cycles.
